

Algernon Presentation:

In a visually engaging Google slideshow, present to your classmates a debate for why your group believes Charlie's surgery was ethical or unethical. All of your reasons should be supported with textual evidence. Every individual in your group must present at least one quote and a thorough explanation and analysis of the quote. Whoever is responsible for the slide needs to put his/her initials in the corner of the slide in order to receive credit for making and presenting the slide.

While presenting to the class, you will be graded on the following categories:

Delivery

- Student holds attention of audience
- Student speaks in a clear, audible voice in an appropriate volume
- Student expresses enthusiasm and inflection to emphasize key points
- Student maintains frequent eye contact with audience and seldom looks at notes
- Student delivers material at a reasonable pace (not too fast or slow)
- Student uses academic language and does not excessively fill pauses with words such as "like," "umm," etc.
- Student's body language is representative of a confident speaker and student uses appropriate gestures when necessary

Content/ Organization

- All content is included in the presentation.
- The presentation is visually appealing. There are pleasing colors, easy to read text, and intriguing images.
